

The Henrietta Szold Humanitarian Award Recipient - Harry Lebovic

Harry Lebovic serves as the Chief Executive Officer of Lebovic Enterprises Limited, bringing with him over four decades of unparalleled experience in the new home construction industry. His career has been marked by a steadfast dedication to making the dream of homeownership a reality for countless families, all while fostering vibrant communities built on the pillars of integrity and excellence.

A proud alumnus of Carleton University, Harry seamlessly blends his sharp business acumen with a profound commitment to philanthropy. He is a Trustee of The Dr. Wolf Lebovic Charitable Foundation and the CEO of The Joseph Lebovic Charitable Foundation, both of which champion impactful initiatives across a multitude of sectors, reflecting his belief in giving back to the community.

Harry's influence extends beyond his enterprises; he holds positions on several boards, including the Board of Governors of the Royal Ontario Museum Foundation, and serves as a director for the Sinai Health Foundation, The Canadian Friends of Ezra's Health Center, The Canadian Society for the Weizmann Institute of Science and JNF Canada.

Residing in Toronto with his wife and children, Harry continues to lead with vision, generosity, and an unwavering dedication to enhancing the lives of those around him, making a lasting impact on the communities he serves.

The inaugural award is being presented to Harry Lebovic in recognition of his transformative generosity and leadership in advancing critical healthcare at the Gandel Rehabilitation Center at Hadassah Hospital, Mount Scopus by making an impact and lasting difference in the lives of those in need. Like Henrietta Szold, Harry's relentless pursuit to make the world a better place is profoundly inspiring.
